

Board of Adjustment Variance Application

I. CONFERENCE A pre-application conference with the City Administrator is available upon request. This meeting is not required in order to submit an application to the Board of Adjustment but may provide helpful information about the process and assist applicants in determining if a variance request is the best option for their specific situation. If you would like to schedule a pre-application conference please contact Ashland City Hall at (573) 657-2091.

II. REQUIRED SUBMITTALS WITH COMPLETED APPLICATION

1. Site drawing and/or information which provides details about the specific variance request.
2. Typed letter from the applicant which explains the circumstances surrounding the request. The information contained in this letter shall include: the hardship behind the request, the impact of the variance upon the surrounding properties, the impact upon public services, and the alternatives to the variance which have been considered.
3. Notarized letter of authorization from the property owner, if the applicant is not the owner.
4. Application fees:                    See Page 2

IV. SUBMITTAL INFORMATION The undersigned hereby applies to the City of Ashland's Board of Adjustment for a zoning variance as outlined below and in any attached documents:
